STATESBORO, Ga. - Georgia Southern senior forward Jennifer Wittick of the women's soccer team was named to the Sun Belt preseason All-Conference team, the league announced Tuesday, Aug 16.

Last season, Wittick held a team-high 11 goals, which tied for second in the Sun Belt. She also tied for third in the conference with goals per game (0.58) and was ranked sixth in points with 23. She led the Eagles in shots on goal (27) and tied for second for game-winning goals with one.

Wittick has totaled 18 goals in her career, along with 38 points. She started all 19 games for the Eagles last season.

Georgia Southern played exhibition games against Jacksonville University and University of Georgia last week, beating the Dolphins 2-1 and tying the Bulldogs 1-1. The team begins its regular season play at home on Friday at 7 p.m. against UNC Wilmington.
